QUALIFICATION DESCRIPTION

This qualification reflects the roles of community services, case management and social housing workers involved in the managing, co-ordinating and/or delivering of person-centred services to individuals, groups and communities.

AEC TARGET CLIENTS

This training is for International students who are:

Existing workers in the care industry and who are interested in furthering their career from community services workers at supervisory level (AQF IV qualifications) to managerial level as a Case or Programme Manager

Or

Have completed training at an AQF Certificate IV level in a relevant qualification e.g:

- CHC43015 Certificate IV in Ageing Support
- CHC43115 Certificate IV in Disability
- CHC42015 Certificate IV in Community Services

It is expected that as existing workers these individuals will have previous experience with formal training in this industry as well as work experience with licensed and regulated organisations providing community services work. Students are required to undertake this training on a full-time basis (20 hours per week plus additional hours for the self-study component of the course simultaneously with face to face study).
